

Looking east on Locust Street which was the main street at that time.

Looking west on Highway 20, 4 miles west of Plainview.

Helicopter that dropped off groceries and supplies to stranded rural people - some that could not get to town for four to six weeks.

Marvin Tepner getting electrical wire from building to pole on a farm south of town. People were just beginning to get electricity in the country.